

FIRST NAME	LAST NAME	CO-PRESENTER	TITLE	FORMAT	ABSTRACT SYNOPSIS	DATE/TIME/ROOM
Norm	Crozer	Gene Lilac, Lucinda Aborn	Remedial English and vocabulary software for deaf students via the Internet	60 Minute Breakout	The presenters have developed four computer programs available on the internet to provide English instruction for deaf students. The programs can be used with or without instructor involvement. The presenters will demonstrate the programs and discuss the successes they have had with the software.	Monday 4/14, 9:00-10:00 AM, Oahu Room
Jennifer	McLean	Lan Qing	Overgeneralization of Mainstream Human Equity Policies in International Development to the Deaf and People with Disabilities	60 Minute Breakout	Presenters will talk about the over generalization of Mainstream Human Equity Policies in International Development to the Deaf and People with Disabilities	Monday 4/14, 7:45am-8:45am AM, Oahu Room
LisaAnn	Tom	Judy Coryell	What Sprint Can do for Deaf and Hard of	60 Minute Breakout	This workshop will give participants the opportunity to examine the unique ways that	Monday 4/14 10:15-11:15am, Oahu

			Hearing People and YOU!		advanced relay and communication technologies can be used as tools in the classroom, workplace, home and community to enhance the lives of deaf and hard of hearing children and adults.
Judy	Coryell			Breakout Seminar	Film and Roundtable: Looking Through Deaf Eyes	Monday 4/14 2:45-5:00 pm, Oahu
Mark	Rust		Bilingualism and Self-Efficacy	Breakout	The theory of constructivism has impacted the educational system in a rapidly changing world. A bilingual approach with Deaf children fosters the development of critical skills as they develop a deeper understanding of concepts in a highly positive, collaborative environment.	Monday 4/14, 1:30-2:30pm, Oahu