

Destination: Where in the Pacific is Cooperative Teaching?
One Day Tour/Seminar
As part of Pacific Rim Conference on Disabilities
Hawaii Convention Center
May 5, 2009

Tour Objective: To deepen your understanding of the what, why and hows of Cooperative Teaching. We will take you via active learning, presentations, and panel discussions of successful Cooperative Teaching efforts in Hawai'i DOE schools.

Tour Highlights:

- Six unique and interrelated sessions on Cooperative Teaching
- Nationally recognized speakers/local experts
- Hawai'i DOE cooperative teachers and administrators

Tour Itinerary:

- Destination 1 Understanding Cooperative Teaching: Definition, History, Rationale, and Attributes
- Destination 2 Building Cooperative Teaching: Roles & Relationships
- Destination 3 Implementing Cooperative Teaching: Learning What it Looks Like and Sounds Like at PK-2, 3-6, 7-8, 9-12 in Hawai'i schools (Presentations and Discussion)
- Destination 4 Supporting Cooperative Teaching: Giving and Getting Support
- Destination 5 Evaluating Cooperative Teaching: Knowing When It's Working
- Destination 6 Planning for Success with Cooperative Teaching: Trouble-shooting

Join the Tour to learn more about Cooperative Learning!

Registration Information

Date & Time: May 5, 2009 8 am - 5 pm

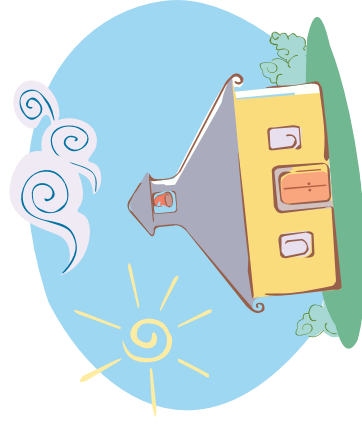

Book Early: To register go to www.pacrim.hawaii.edu

Cost: One day Kama'aina fee $145

Trip includes: 6 unique sessions on Cooperative Teaching
Lunch

Cooperative Teaching pamphlet

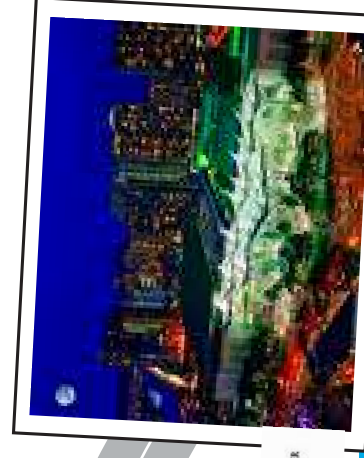

Raffle for Cooperative Teaching Books – 1 per session

F E R F - I - R S - U P P O R T S

W E W S

Where in the Pacific is Cooperative Teaching?

A one day tour/seminar on Cooperative Teaching
Hawai'i Convention Center
Tuesday, May 5, 2009
8 am to 5 pm

Tour Guides:

- Suzanne Robinson – University of Kansas - Director, Strategic Learning Center
- Jeanne Bauwens – Co-author of Cooperative Teaching: Tools for Success, and Cooperative Teaching: Rebuilding the School House for All
- Norma Jean Stodden – Co-author of Cooperative Teaching: Tools for Success
Hawai'i DOE Cooperative Teaching Teams & Administrators