A KŪ-A-KANAKA Indigenous Education Symposium

Date: MAY 18, 2015
Time: 8:00 am—4:30 pm
Hawaiʻi Convention Center
Honolulu

This informative one-day Professional Development Seminar brings together Native educators, social entrepreneurs, farmers and other leaders. Sharing their ways of integrating Native values and cultural knowledge across the board, these experts provide practical advice on how to grow self-sustaining culturally-driven organizations, which assure that our vast Indigenous knowledge and practices are passed down to the next generation.

Colloquium topics include:

- Culture and Language Revitalization and Practice
- Elders, Family and Community Engagement and Empowerment
- Food Sovereignty and Environmental Sustainability
- Organizational Values and Economic Viability

Contact Kū-A-Kanaka: 808-464-5005
Email: kuakanaka@gmail.com

Using the Long Line
Applying Native Ingenuity in Education